

PHASE 2: 2.3
EOI Assessment Matrix
December 2024

Revised on May, 2026

No.	Category (Linked to Submission Section)	Weight%
1	Section 2: The industry problem is clearly described and defined.	5
2	Section 2: The proposed technology intervention or other solution is clearly described and plausible.	20
3	Section 3: The industry partner and project leadership are suitable recipients of the grant and do not present any obvious ethical, environmental, or conflict concerns.	10
4	Section 4: The academic and training institutions partner and project leadership are suitable recipients of the grant and do not present any obvious ethical, environmental, or conflict concerns.	10
5	Section 5: The ongoing positive value of the proposed solution to the industry sector is clearly identified and understood.	10
6	Section 6: The extent to which the project will advance ethical industry practices and sustainability issues has been clearly identified.	10
7	Section 7: Future high-level skills for the industry/industry sector have been clearly identified.	10
8	Section 8: The positive impact of the project on either future research, curriculum design, or industry engagement has been clearly identified.	10
9	Section 9: The proposed project can plausibly be completed within the 12-month timeframe.	5
10	Section 10: Overall, the project demonstrates industry innovation or transformation solutions that will deliver meaningful outcomes for Bangladesh.	10

- Note: 1. This is an indicative assessment matrix which may be revised subject to the approval of the NPD
2. The weight assigned for different categories will be subdivided by the experts of the review panel for objective evaluation